Terrible Racket Behind the Close

CLEVELAND, Nov. 28.—The case of hamberiain against Jacob Perkins, is chieb $18 000 and a stone sidewalk are spute, was closed up and given to the jury Judge Hamilton in the common plea court. Thursday. The jury retired, organ-ized, and got down to a review of the evi-dence very quietly. Then developed, or course, a diversity of opinion relative to the case, and the discussion waxed hot. Soon the jurymen all began talking at once, and their loud, angry and vehement word penetrated the thick walls and floated out into the court room, Another case was on trial before Judge Hamilton, but not a word could be heard, so boisterous was the noise in the jury room. The clerk and bailiff knocked or the door as a warning to the rioters, and, perhaps, just in time to prevent wholes times, and Judge Hamilton finally left the bench and got around in front of witnesse in order that he might hear the evidence i the case on trial. At 3 o'clock in the after noon the bailiff was in a quandary us to whether he should call for the police or ask the mayor for the militia.

The jury in the Ed. Allen case, Wednes me time the various members were referring furniture barely escaped wrecking. The belligerent members were finally won over to a verdict of guilty by the logic that it would be better for Allen to be sent to the pital and cared for.

The land-lords, instead of making reasonable abatements which the depression in agriculture demanded, and which every landlord in England and Scotland conceded, would be evicting tenants wholesale. Earl Spencer constantly encouraging them, the police, the soldiery and the coercion magistracy filled the julis. Under the name of free schools the Liberals were making insistious attempts to crush religious education, and establish a state of tyranny and intolerance wherewith to fetter con-science. The reform proceedure was a new gag in its application to all opponents of Raticalism in the House of Commons, despotic in its methods, and a mean machinery. The Birmingham cancus was a specious demand for a majority against the Irish party, and means a power to crush the anti-Radicals in Parliament. Liberals or Radicals, except in some few cases, in which a courageous fealty to the Irish cause in the last Parilament has given guarantee that the candidate does not be long to the servile, cowardly and unprinci-
